A rider is a provision of the policy that may have additional costs, limitations, potential benefits and features that should never be confused with the base policy itself. Before evaluating the benefits of a rider, carefully examine the policy to which it is attached.

Life insurance policies contain exclusions, limitations, reductions of benefits and terms for keeping them in-force. Please contact your insurance professional for complete details.

Guarantees and benefits are subject to the claims-paying ability of Symetra Life Insurance Company.

Certain benefits or riders may have tax implications. Consult with your legal or tax advisor prior to purchasing.

The Accelerated Death Benefit for Terminal Illness Rider is only available for insureds issue ages 20-85 and is not available on rated policies.

Receipt of an accelerated death benefit may be taxable. Consult with your personal tax or legal advisor before exercising this rider. You may also lose your right to receive certain public funds such as Medicare, Medicaid, Social Security, Supplemental Security Income (SSI), and possibly others. The accelerated death benefit is intended to qualify under section 101(g) (26 U.S.C. 101(g)) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. The death benefit and loan value will be reduced if an accelerated death benefit is paid. There is no restriction on the use of proceeds of these accelerated death benefits.

This is not a complete description of the Symetra Term policy. For a more complete description, please ask your insurance professional.

¹ The Insured Children's Term Insurance Rider pays a death benefit upon receipt of documentation that the insured child died while the rider is in-force and the child was under 25 years of age.

² The Waiver of Premium Rider waives premiums if the insured is totally disabled due to injury or sickness for six consecutive months or more, and the injury or sickness commenced before the policy anniversary following the insured's 60th birthday. If premiums are being waived at that time, premiums will continue to be waived for as long as the total disability continues. If total disability commenced after the policy anniversary following the insured's 60th birthday, premiums will continue to be waived up to the policy anniversary date following the insured's 65th birthday. Policies with a face amount in excess of $5 million are not eligible for the Waiver of Premium.

³ The Accidental Death Benefit Rider pays an additional death benefit upon satisfactory proof that the insured died of an accidental death. The insured must have died within 180 days from the date of the accident. The minimum amount is $5,000, and the maximum amount is three times the face amount up to a maximum of $250,000, whichever is less.

⁴ The Additional Term Insurance Rider face amount may not exceed the face amount on the base policy. Rider coverage may not be increased. Decreases are permitted only after the first year anniversary of the rider, but may not decrease below $25,000.
